Rejected Lowest Tender From Toronto Taxpayer

Maguire P.C 23/1/35

Maguire of Port Credit Paying City Taxes on 92 Apartments—Heads a City Firm—Controller Sam McBride Remarked, "What of It, He Carries on His Motor Car Business Outside the City, and Pays No Taxes on That Here".

When the Toronto board of control overrode the recommendation of the works commissioner that a truck be purchased from Maguire Motors, Port Credit, the lowest bidder, in order that it might patronize a Toronto firm at a higher cost, it discriminated against a Toronto taxpayer, according to E. D. Maguire, Port Credit, head of the motor car firm, who is also president of the E. D. Maguire Co. Limited, Toronto, which pays city taxes on 92 apartments.

"I do not wish to enter into any controversy over the awarding of the contract," he told a reporter. "I am just telling you the facts of the case. I had forgotten all about the tender until a customer called it to my attention when the account of its awarding appeared in the press."

"All I want is a square deal," he asserted. "If I wasn't a taxpayer of the city of Toronto I wouldn't expect to get the business. I have built nearly 30 houses in Toronto and hired Toronto labor, much more labor than any other Toronto dealer for the same kind of cars.

"The people in the works department must have known that we paid taxes in Toronto. They sent us the regular tender form. When I first went into this business I told someone in the department that I was a Toronto taxpayer and would appreciate any business. We have put in other tenders, but I never heard of them again. I think they were high. I have never had a low tender refused before in that way," he said.

Is Outside Dealer, Says McBride

Reminder of E. D. Maguire, head of a Port Credit motor firm, that he paid taxes on several Toronto apartments and, therefore, deserved consideration on city purchases, bore little weight with Con. McBride today.

"What of it?" demanded Con. McBride. "He carries on his motor car business outside the city and pays no taxes on that here. The board of control had a perfect right to do as it saw fit in taking the lowest Toronto offer. Let him move into Toronto if he wants to sell trucks to the city."

PALGRAVE

One of the landmarks of this generation was removed when William McGuire passed away on Friday morning at his home here on Wallace Ave. Mr. McGuire had been ailing for the greater part of the summer. A little over a month ago he went to a Toronto hospital and while there an operation was performed when the doctors discovered he was suffering from cancer of the bowels. After he had sufficiently recovered he was removed to his home here, where he lingered for about three weeks gradually becoming weaker until the end came. He did not suffer much pain during his illness and was quite conscious up to the last. Most of his life was spent on the 9th line, Albion, where he was known as an industrious farmer and always enjoyed his work. His industry brought him well-earned success. For a number of years he and his wife have been living retired. The deceased was in his 69th year, a member of the Anglican church and a regular attendant at its services. In politics he was a Conservative. The funeral took place on Sunday the 22nd, and was largely attended. Interment in Laurel Hill cemetery. Rev. Mr. Herman of Caledon East conducted the funeral service. The Orangemen officiated at his burial

Cleared Land With Oxen Before First Crop Sown

McGuire

A very interesting event took place in Holstein Park on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 17 and 18, when Mr. and Mrs. John McGuire of Belgrave, grandparents of Mrs. J. C. Zimmerman, Palgrave, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Mr. and Mrs. John McGuire, Sr., were married in the Methodist parsonage at Blyth by Rev. Fisher in 1885. When they were starting homemaking first they settled on a farm on the Sixth line of Sullivan, later sold Krugg Bros. of Chesley. For thirteen years they pioneered in the bush, working with oxen, clearing land enough to grow some crop. Five of their family were born here, namely, Nelson, Lilly, Elmer, Lester and Harry. Then they moved down to Normanby township to the Sugh farm from here. Three children were born, Violet, Roy and Ella. They stayed here about six years, then they moved to the 18th Con. of Egremont. They lived here for seven years till they sold out to their oldest son, Nelson. The youngest daughter, Iola, was born here. At this time they moved to the village of Belgrave where they reside.

Mr. McGuire still carries on a dray and mail business from C.N.R. to the post office and stores; also they get a lot of exercise in the large garden. The oldest son, Nelson, is engaged in the milling business in Holstein. Lilly married John Zimmerman of Palgrave in 1910. Elmer went overseas early in 1917 and contracted the flu in Bramshott camp and died, his body being buried with honours in Bramshott cemetery. Lester lives in Dryden, Rainy River district, New Ont., and works in paper pulp mills there. Harry lives in Belgrave. Violet married A. R. Tasker, postmaster in Blyth. Ella, Mrs. Cecil Mines, of Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Roy of Dryden, New Ont., and Iola, Mrs. Mervin Richmond, near Blyth, Ont.

There are twenty-seven grandchildren and two great-grand-children, the latter two being a son and a daughter of Mrs. Walter Hardie of Parry Sound, formerly Edna Zimmerman, of Palgrave.

On this occasion of their golden wedding, the family presented their parents with a three-storey wedding cake, a gold wedding ring to their mother, a gold watch chain to their father and a cut-glass fruit set, the latter from Mr. and Mrs. John Zimmerman. The family reunion sat down to bountifully laden tables during their two days' stay in the well-equipped Saugeen Park at Holstein, and were well served by Mesdames Hastie Adams and Brebner and Miss May Furguson.

Several contests and games were enjoyed on Saturday afternoon and in the evening several old friends and neighbours joined the gathering and were entertained by Ritchie and Teeter orchestra, from Durham. They stayed overnight and on Sunday attended Trinity Church and Sunday School. Altogether they had a very enjoyable reunion and departed for various homes on Sunday evening promising themselves to have another reunion if possible next year.
